

Dover, The Hitter

THE HITTER

I was just a hitter on the top of the mountain no one told me the truth they lift you to the top and then they kick you to the bottom you know how bad it feels hey! this is who I am don't forget about your rage that was ilegal

and nobody cares

I just had the beater but the beater would leave me no one told her the truth
and they they kick you to the bottom
