

Down Below, Runaway

You little runaway
Run over the hills
But I'm standing in your way
'cause loneliness kills

The moment that I was born
was the moment I cried
Every second I live is a second a die
The moment that I was born
Was the moment I cried
Every second I live
Is a second a die
Oh, oh

Hey little runaway
Trying to leave us all
But I'm standing in your way
I won't watch you fall
Don't run... Hey, Loneliness kills!

Every moment I hope
Is A moment I lie
And every second I love
Is a second I die
You think your last mistake's done
You don't want to retry
You're not the only one
Look, we all have to fight
Oh, oh

Hey little runaway
Trying to leave us all
But I'm standing in your way
I won't watch you fall
Don't run... Hey, Loneliness kills!

Help!
Stop!

Don't run... Hey, loneliness kills!
Don't run... Hey, loneliness kills!
Don't run... Hey, loneliness kills!
Don't run... Hey, loneliness kills!

Runaway...
