

Down By Law, Hit Or Miss

so you want to become a hero stop the world -- become a hero we just can't find one anywhere can't find one anywhere so you're thinking you're a victim stop the world cause you're a victim well, you can find one anywhere you can find one everywhere life's just a hit or miss all the time, just a hit or miss sometimes you take a swing and miss a swing and a miss well sometimes, we take a swing and hit!
Now you're thinking about the future try to picture some kind of future you just can't see one anywhere -- can't see it anywhere well we need to find us a hero can you tell me where are the heroes who can clean up everywhere hey g.i. joe, where are you now?
And if I could count the times that I looked up to the sky and asked someone to save me. . .
