

Down By Law, Right Or Wrong

under the sky
you see me walk alone
you wonder why
I honestly don't know
to be alone tonight
to find the answers
what's wrong or right
your right or wrong
how can I see
your right or wrong
which will it be
your right or wrong
how can I know
your right or wrong
which way to go?
lying awake at night
thinking of all the things I have to do
and things I should have done decisions to be made
I see the path
is it the way?
I know the answers out there if I keep looking, will I find it?
the answers in the night and if I find it, what then?
what then?
