

Down By Law, The King & I

candy coated promise and candy coated lies I don't know what you've been told but we've heard it a million times from day to day is how you're livin' blowing chances that you've been given jaded ears, jaded spoons feed us like we're little fools now we've got our chance I know the way it was and now the way it is you don't know what the fuck you're saying and we don't give a shit should you stay, or should you go . . . you ask yourself - who wants to know?
This and that, get off my back go ahead and steal the show acting stupid, that's all you did now we're rolling and moving steps ahead
jaded ears, jaded spoons
enough fake romance and now we're gonna draw the line we're sick of wasting all our time we won't change who we really are you've pushed us way too far
