

Down in the Dumps, I Hate Myself But I Don't Wa

I can't believe you really told me, I can't believe you really wanna die. now I'm feeling fucked up again and I know I feel the same sometimes. so tell me now my friend, what can I say to make you feel something else tonight? I hate myself but I don't want to die. at least not all the fucking while now take a look around you, we wouldn't be alright. life knocks you down, you gotta jump back up got too much to lose, too much on your mind and I'm telling you tonite, please don't die. cuz we wouldn't, no I wouldn't be alright. we've lost so many already, no I can't reel that pain again. and I'm telling you right now keep your head up, because it's us against the world.
