

Down in the Dumps, If Green Day Had The Guts.

I don't wanna work another day in the life, holding on to dreams that I know are lies I don't wanna fucking be a slave to the grind sometimes I wanna get up & leave.
another day in parasite, sucking the life out of me. did you ever think buy, sell, & die & dream? no way man, that shit is not for me. do you ever think about about stupid things? paying rent, swimming in debt.
