

Down, Losing All

my brain distorts the pleasure, no facts behind my eyes.
this pain I've come to treasure,
being down has become my life...
don't know which one is real,
been kicked in the groin I drown the way I feel,
though I will to go Losing all
I'm lord of misery
I'm king of rain
I'm a broken man of the world in a state of my wrists are slit, I'm losing all.
gun at my head,
I'm losing all.
my bones are broken,
I'm losing all
last time I had,
I'm losing all
Losing all
