

Downface, Bring Me Down

Politics.. Make you shudder
Stupid Games .. Broke your Brother
A Side of me.. Or so you thought once Could it be.. You don't have one
Bring Me Down
Old school boy.. Couldn't get by Thought your ways.. were all we could try Rule the world.. Your money's talking Starve yourself.. It's not worth offering
Bring Me Down
Through this world
we all can see ourselves
On our knees
Reeling, Crying out loud
I would give
It all just to get one chance just to have a laugh
Bring Me Down
