

Downface, Head Case

It was only in my head
All the looks that you gave to me
It's in my head
Was I so blind I could not see?
It doesn't matter much to me coming from you
All the shit you put me through
But lines are forming on your face
That's why I'm saying Fuck You.. I see it in your eyes it only takes some time.. to make it heal
Then die.. for what is real Time and Time again.. my eyes are turning red It's living agony
it's now your turn to see
It was only in my head
All the touches you gave to me
It's in my head
Was I so blind I could not see?
Right or wrong it makes no difference now to me
As long as you will pay the fee
Man it seems its been so long Since I have said to Chorus
I held.. This One.. For You.. In You
It's all.. I have.. I know.. It is sad
My time.. My way.. My pain.. Burning inside Your head
