

Dr. Hook, Yours And Mine

(Unknown)

When you took me out of lonesome, and put the s in my eyes
Oh you helped me see tomorrow, you gave me strength to survive
And if love can ever take me far across that doubting line
To where yesterday can't haunt me, it'll be yours and mine

'Til now love has always left me lonesome
Love never treated me kind
But if love ever finds forever
It'll be yours and mine

Oh I know, yours and mine
Oh I know, yours and mine

Makin' love was makin' memories
We made a few in our time
And if we still feel love at sunup
It'll be yours and mine

'Til now love has always left me lonesome
Love never treated me kind
But if we still feel love at sunup
It'll be yours and mine

Oh and if it ever finds forever
It'll be yours and mine
Oh I know, yours and mine
Oh baby I know, yours and mine
