

Dr No, Light

Sometimes I wonder
what date we have
is it tuesday or sunday 2003 or 2004?
but what difference does it really make?
who gives a damn?
honey or jelly
boots or snickers
tennis or volleyball
blond or dark hair
smart or sexy and cool
conscious or unconscious
well, definitely
light with the lights
and hard with the hards
yesterday i looked at my face and i started to count wrinkles under my eyes
is it the second or is it the third i got this year?
but what difference does it really make?
what colour was that car that parked down in front of my window was it red? was it blue? or maybe yellow?
but why do I wonder at all?
who gives a damn?
well, definitely
