

Dr. Sin, Scream & Shout

(Dr. Sin)

Ain't no way I'll ever be another loser
Oh, I'll fight to the end
Nothin' can make me change my ways
This time, I'm gonna win, ooh yeah
Every day it seems that I'm just spinning wheels
But I'll never give up
One day I'm gonna make my dreams all real
I'm here to stay
When your head's spinning 'round
And your pride is on the ground
When your life is falling down, down, down
When your days are lost not found
And you cry without a sound
When your life is falling down
Spit it out
Scream and shout
Each day you wait the flames keep
Burning higher, so don't hesitate
Throw all your fear in the fire
Never give in
