

Dr. Sin, Time After Time

Time after time
Living in memories
Crossing the line
Of reality

Lives passing by
Watching my destiny
Voices are calling
From deep in my mind

Alone in dark
I fear the night
No words can explain
Am I insane?

If I think
Of all the pain
I couldn't make
Me through
Another day
Another way

Where will I find
Peace of mind
Before my eyes
My life slips away
Fades away

Wondering why
Nothing seems real to me
Watching the hands of the Click tick away

It's like a bad dream
No one can hear me scream
I can't stop the nightmare
Have mercy on me
