

Dragonland, Ride For Glory

[Music: Magnusson Lyrics: Magnusson, Heidgert]

"We yearn for the battle and the glory...but my heart doesn't stray from home...
We're joined by the dwarves of the underworld, the elves of the deepest forests, the highland barbarians and the knights of the most radiant orders...

Together we will defend this world...

And victorious we shall be

Ride on..."

We ride into the sunset

And race towards the dawn

We carry on beyond the horizon

Past the night to see the sun again

For the glory, for the splendour

For the honour and the victory

We all hope that someday

We can live in peace again

But for now we must defend

Our people, our homes and our lands

We raise our steel, to the sky

Journey on with hope held high

Carry on, carry on

Brave men you'll fight for your freedom

So Ride on, ride on

Ride on with hope held high

[Solo: N.M, E.H, O.M]

We leave our women and children

We leave them crying behind

But we'll return someday

With happiness and joy

For the glory for the splendour

Journey on with hope held high

Carry on, carry on

Brave men you'll fight for your freedom

So Ride on, ride on

Ride on with hope held high

With hope held high...
