Drake Bell, Highway To Nowhere

I'm tired of all your excuses

I'm tired of all your lies

Your filthy schemes and abuses

Ooh, I've finally grown wise

Got tired of chasin' it down

Baby it's better that I'm not around

And I'm on the highway to nowhere

Tryin' to get by without you

I don't know why it took me so long to

Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere Wind up back at nowhere with you

It's time for a little payback

It's time for a little respect

You can't just rewind and playback

All of the shit that you wrecked

And I'm on the highway to nowhere

Tryin' to get by without you

I don't know why it took me so long to

Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere

Wind up back at nowhere with you

And I'm on the highway to nowhere

Tryin' to get by without you

I don't know why it took me so long to

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh

Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh yeah

Wind up back at nowhere

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Back at nowhere, nowhere, wind up back with you [x4]

We are awesome
