

Drake, Wednesday Night Interlude (Feat. PARTY

Been a minute since we've slept together
Gotta get myself together
I've been thinkin' about everything
I don't know if it's because I'm lonely
Lonely on a Wednesday night, girl, I'm lonely
I'll admit it if you just keep quiet, girl, I'm lonely
That shit ain't my fault, girl cause I'm lonely

Name another woman
Ain't no other woman that should comfort me when I'm lonely
Mixing Remy, little bit of Henny
I'm running on empty, I'm lonely
When I'm lonely, when I'm lonely

Heard you spent your summers in Miami
At somebody's house that you didn't buy
You're young, yeah, have fun, girl, but I hope it was worth it
Cause fuck it, I'm not here to judge
Fuck it, I'm not here to love everything you did to ball
Fuck it, I'm just glad you called
Ring ring ring, what a thing
Ring ring ring, school bell, I ring
You and I got options, bae

Name another woman
Ain't no other woman that should comfort me when I'm lonely
Mixing Remy, little bit of Henny
I'm running on empty, I'm lonely
When I'm lonely, when I'm lonely

This shit ain't my fault
