

Dream Evil, Fire! Battle! In Metal!

I am your dark desire
The one who comes with fire
The one that's gonna make you scream
Too late you will discover
I'm much more than a lover
On pain of fear, your evil dream

Now it's time for
Fire! Battle! In Metal!
I live for the Metal
Metal! Screaming! In lightning!
I fight for the metal and die for the metal

I am the evil soldier
The mighty metal warrior
The one you wish you'd never seen
I am the king of darkness
You are the scared and harmless
I'm gonna take you fast as wind

Now it's time for
Fire! Battle! In Metal!
I live for the Metal
Metal! Screaming! In lightning!

I fight for the metal

When you think that it's over
You will wake up and feel my breath
I will force you to feel the pain again
When the morning has broken
You have fallen down and out
But I still will come back for more

I am made for you
You are made for me
Fire!
