

Dream Evil, Tired

We all once in a while wonder where our lives taking us and where we're going I've reached a certain point Realized I don't know what the hell I am doing

Am I born to walk alone
Through the fire and the storm pushing myself to the limit Was it meant to be this way spending my days, all on my own

I'm still the man I used to be just slightly matured and wise
I lately have realized!

I don't want to be alone anymore
I want someone by my side
Someone to give me unconditional love
Of this life I am so tired

I want to be alive
Want to have a life - different than how I am living don't want to settle down
Want to be around
When and where ever I'm needed

Am I born to walk alone
Through the fire and the storm
I can't control what I'm feeling if I walk against the wind Torn up within will it pay off

I'm still the man I used to be
just slightly matured and wise
I lately have realized!

I don't want to be alone anymore
I want someone by my side
Someone to give me unconditional love
Of this life I am so tired

So tired - of fighting battles on my own
So tired - I've worked fingers to the bone
So tired -Of being a loner alone!

I don't want to be alone anymore
I want someone by my side
Someone who give me unconditional love
Of this life I am so tired

I don't want to be alone anymore
I want someone by my side
Someone who give me unconditional love
Of this life I am so tired

So tired!
