

Dream Evil, Unbreakable Chain

If you think that you're strong on your own. You best think again.
I've been there, I've been everywhere So listen my friend

Hear me out let me try to explain I see what you think
But a chain is never stronger than, its weakest link

Don't be afraid, altogether we can make a change let's all bind together, to form an unbreakable chain

You and I belong
together we're strong
Only the fight remain
united we are strong
but weak on our own
No one can break this chain
No they cannot break this chain..

When you're low, feeling weak and confused - don't be alarmed Cause I'll be there, to back you up like a log - we're brothers in arms.
Immovable stand together in snow, wind and rain the millions of people who've form the unbreakable chain

You and I belong
together we're strong
united we are strong
but weak on our own
No one can break this chain
No they cannot break this chain..

You and I belong
together we're strong
united we are strong
but weak on our own

You and I belong
Together we're strong
Only the fight remain
United we are strong
But weak on our own
No one can change how we feel
No! no one can break this chain..of steel
