Dream Theater, Prophets Of War

It burns deep down inside of me We have ourselves to blame Not questioning, accepted as the truth

Debate this fight, it's just cause The facts do not support theirs To liberate a people And rid them of tyrant rule

Is it time to make a change? Are we closer than before? Can we help them break away? Are we profiting from war? It's time to make a change

Intrigued Got your attention - Deceived Since the inception - Our brave Fight for what reason

Compelled Can we clean up this mess The loss of loved ones A perverse request They continue the same rhetoric These derelicts that profit Win or lose

Is it time to make a change? Are we closer than before? Can we help them break away? Are we profiting from war? It's time to make a change

Time for change Fight the fear Find the truth Time for change

The only thing That I believe Will help us see this through is faith Pray they will forgive Forgive our arrogance So we can make it right Right what they have wronged

See you sweat Unexpected, controversial Get used to it Things are gonna get personal Your sympathy A pitiful display you stutter Your empathy Means nothing if there is no honor Responsible Of this you are incapable We implicate Incriminate - Exacerbate - Too much at stake Our Fathers, Mothers Sisters, Brothers Sons and Daughters Forced Perpetuating their ideals

A mindless act To stay the course

Is it time to make a change? Are we closer than before? Can we help them break away? Are we profiting from war?

Is it time to make a change? Are we closer than before? Can we help them break away? Are we profiting from war?

Is it time to make a change? A change from what it's been Can we help them break away? Is our patience wearing thin? It's time to make a change

Time for change Fight the fear Find the truth Time for change
