

Dreamaker, Innocent Blood

Music: Albert Maroto, Jorge Sez, Elisa C. Martin

Lyrics: Elisa C. Martin

Come with me across the forest
I wish to see the terror in your eyes
You can beg and you can shout
But you know that nobody will help you

I'm breathing blood again
Will I wake up from this nightmare?
Please help me!
The pain is killing me
I won't survive

Look at me, you know my name
You had never imagined it
A human chill, a sweet deceit
I will drag you up to the limit

I feel your fist's strike
And the steel's tearing all my flesh
No mercy!
I only beg for death, I won't survive

Now wring the blood from your hands
No! you don't regret you love your life
You'll find another child

You're in my mind
Your smooth body must be mine
Breathing your breath
You'll be my slave all this night my lovely child I'm at your feet take a look at me and tell me what you see I'm just a friend but I wan't be more My world's upside down and I've got nothing else to lose so I need to return to do it to feel your fear, to smell your flesh to drink your blood... blood
