

Dropkick Murphys, Who Is Who

My friends call me enemy cause they're a fucking joke
They'd better get their shit together it's time that they awoke
I'm cast out by my relatives cause they don't want me around
I just sit in a corner and I don't make a sound - Not one word

The walls are closing in on me
I don't know what to do
Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who

Policemen are my friends so why do they always stare
Raid our clubs bust out parties condemned for short hair
Teachers are my friends so why do they make me stand
In front of a class of gawking fools who'll never understand - They never understand

The world around me falls apart
I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who
Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who

The world around me falls apart
I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who
Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who

Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who
Tell me who is who
