

Drown, Two Faced You

For seven years I thought you were down
Now the spineless one is all I know
You were a friend of mine
You were a friend of mine
Two faced
You are
Both faces hide your fear
And both faces you hide behind
I wish I didn't see this
You were a friend of mine
You were from the old days
I thought I knew you well
But the hard times hit and I learned
About the other face you'd sell
So come confront me
Come confront me
It's the only thanks you get
Fuck you
Two faced
I thought you were my friend
But you remind me of my father
