

Drowning Pool, No More

Your words, have crippled me
Crippled me
Crippled me
My mind, has blinded me
Blinded me
Blinded me

My world yeah
My world comes crashin'
My world comes crashin'
Down

You keep on comin' around
And someday you'll come around
(Hey)
Push a little more you'll see it
(Hey)
Push a little more you'll bleed

I feel my tension rising
I feel my temper rising
Push a little more you'll see it
Push a little more you'll bleed
My world yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you
These open scars remind you
You stay
I'll stand still
You won't promise me no

This open heart will blind you
These open scars remind you
You stay
I'll stand still
You won't promise me no

No More
No More
No More

The more you speak to me
The more you lie to me
The more you lie to me
The tighter this noose gets tied

I feel my tension rising
I feel my temper rising
(Hey)
Push a little more you'll see it
(Hey)
Push a little more you'll bleed
My world yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you
You stay
I'll stand still

This open heart will blind you

These open scars remind you
You stay
I'll stand still

No More
No you won't promise
No More
No More
No, no more

My world yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you
You stay
I'll stand still

This open heart will blind you
You stay
I'll stand still

No More
No you won't promise
No More
No More
No, no more
