

Drunksouls, Pain Of Life

Hate is not the feeling that keeps me alive
Hope is not the reason why i should survive
Love is not exactly what you'll find by my side
Babe let me just enjoy my pain of life

Love is not the feeling that keeps me alive
Hate is not the reason why i should survive
Hope is not exactly what you'll find by my side
Babe let me just enjoy my pain of life

By my side (you) won't have conversation
But babe you'll get more positions
By my side you'd like comprehension
Maybe you've missed a station

In your eyes (I) can see your illusions
Dreaming of poetic passion
On my face looking for emotions
You've got my pain of life

Hate is not the feeling that keeps me alive
Hope is not the reason why i should survive
Love is not exactly what you'll find by my side
Babe let me just enjoy my pain of life

You're fancying destructive passion
When babe it's just about destruction
You're suffering my depraving action
Just waiting for soul purgation

In your eyes (I) can see your illusions
Dreaming of poetic passion
On my face looking for emotions
You've got my pain of life

Let me tell you something
You re losing your time babe
With me and
You should not have met me girl
You shouldn't have played with me neither
You should do only one thing
Go away

Hate is not the feeling that keeps me alive
Hope is not the reason why i should survive
Love is not exactly what you'll find by my side
Babe let me just enjoy my pain of life

Hate is not the feeling that keeps me alive
