

Dub War, Silencer

as life goes on i often wonder will you see another day you're hurting me i don't know if it's lust or it's love but if you won it you gorrit no never you could never understand now you must feel this pain forever you could never understand silencer silencer silencer silence her as life goes on he often regrets everything that he had done lies and deceits send me to jail without a trial now if you won it you gorrit no never
now all this lust in my eyes isn't clever just because you cry to stand
silencer silencer
silence silence silence silence look what love has gone and done again step on your heart tears run down the drain down the drain
down the drain
down the drain
silencer an now you wanna silence her (take her out) silencer silencer if love is war an war is love then what are we all fighting for some of us crazy people living a lie jealousy can make you cry i've been lost an i've been sussed an hurt an screaming crying am I breaking the law dat is wrong get it right i've jus goz to stan up strong
silencer silencer
