

Dubstar, Don't Blame Me

It's half you the rest is me too
The choice was yours it hurts me too

So hate me, don't hate me
Even though you blame me

The inescapable truth that we'll never prove
So hate me, don't hate me even though you should

Nothing left to say pride got in the way

So hate me, don't hate me
Even though you blame me
So hate me, don't hate me
Even though you say we need to talk you know we never could

So hate me, don't hate me even though you should
