

Dubstar, Elevator Song

I know why you came this time that we've borrowed imagine us now talking tomorrow We're not very big but we're certainly clever to go on together
well... what makes sense now?
disgraceful... will we ever say no?
It's wine that we feel that drives us together this hormonal vision that won't last forever We're old enough now & we should know better
to go on together
well... what makes sense now
disgraceful... will we ever say no?
This match that I'm burning two people still looking for something else
