

Dubstar, Last Song

And on
Our stage
The scene
Is set
The empty chairs
And pushers left

Invitations made and sent
Expectations came and went
But time won't slow
Not even for this show
It's our last song
Bitter and strong
The final song
Is with you

It's hard
To know
When to stop
When to leave
We've ended knowing
There is no reprieve

With disappointments every day
Audiences have gone their way
And somehow knew
They'd lead us too
It's our last song
Tainted and wrong
One more tune
And we're through

So dance to our songs
Of loves lost, for our home is
This stage
All alone

And you
Are here
A moment
For tears
What's our futures?
Where are we going
Who'll pay for us now?
There's nothing left to be resolved
Dreams and questions never solved
I blame you, and your lack of grace
It was you who couldn't stand the pace
But every curse conceals a smile
Haven't heard you've left for quite awhile

It's our last song
For the world didn't stay
To the end of our play
So we'll sing from our hearts for the first time
And play to the stars for the last time
For last song
Is the end of beginnings
The fights and the winnings
But I'll stay with you
I'll stay with you
For all our songs
And every one of those songs
Left to come
