

Dubstar, New Friends

New friends
These are our new friends
Mine's a streak of a lad
Whose already been had
And a face you've seen
Somewhere before

New friends
Meeting your
New friend
She's got legs to the skies
Her lips match her eyes
And a voice that knocks men to the floor

And we laugh
'Cause we both know it's funny
To see them
Yes, it's daft
But I didn't think we'd come to be
This way

New friends
Talking to
New friends
The connection is there
But I really don't care
'Cause all I can think of is you

New friends
Looking at your friend
It's that pain in your eyes
As she waves us goodbye
Did I say that you're better in bed?

And we laugh
'Cause we both know it's funny
To see them
Yes, it's daft
But I didn't think we'd come to be
This way

We could dance
We could shake off the shackles
And end this game
We should laugh
'Cause we're only pretending
We feel the same
About new friends
Our new friends
We've got new friends
