

Ducky Boys, Ain't It A Shame

You, You're calling out
Yeah I hear you calling out
You've been calling my name
Over and over again
You're reaching out
Yeah I hear you're screaming out
You've been crying in pain

Ain't it a shame
How you let yourself fade and waste away
Ain't it a shame

You, You're counting out
Yeah I hear you're counting out
You've been counting the days
Over and over and I,
I'm looking out
Yeah you know I'm looking out
I look for a way and all I can say is

Ain't it a shame
How you let yourself fade and waste away
Ain't it a shame

Ain't it a shame
How you let yourself fade and waste away
Ain't it a shame

I've been crying for so long, baby
I've been crying for so long
You've been crying for so long

Ain't it a shame
How you let yourself fade and waste away
Ain't it a shame

Ain't it a shame
How you let yourself fade and waste away
Ain't it a shame
