

Ducky Boys, I'll Rise Up

You made me hate you, made me hate myself this time I can't depend on anybody else
I'm not the toughest, I never claimed to be
If I don't fight now, I will never be free
You knocked me down, you knocked me out
YOU never really new what it was all about
Sometimes I want to runaway to a place where I can hide
I know that I am stronger, I know that I'll survive
You amde me hate myself when there was no one else
I'll lie no longer 'cause I am stronger
I'll rise up again
You knocked me down
I'll rise up again
The truth will be found
I'll rise up again
I'm stronger, I'll hold my ground
