Duff McKagan, Believe In Me

When I was a young boy
Said some man parted some sea
They said believe in us
Why should they lie to me
Now I'm not a young boy
What I believe is what I believe
But I still get fooled sometimes
It's so goddamned easy
(Girl Part)
Now that I'm a grown man
Be the best that I can be
Been down every rocky road
And I'm bloodied at my knees
But I treat you like a princess
Never ask to be the king

Just believe in me

Believe in me

Believe in me

Yeah yeah

Where does it leave me

When you don't believe in me

Where does it leave me

When you don't believe in me

I'd climb any mountain

Yeah I'd cross any sea

I might break down and cry

But I'd drop down my bottle of rye

If you'd just believe in me

Bélieve in me

Believe in me

Where does it leave me

When you don't believe in me

Where does it leave me

When you don't believe in me

But I'm still my own man

Yeah I'm still my own man

And I do what I can

And while you're treating me raw

I still make my own law

I still make my own law

Come on

Believe in me

Believe in me

Yeah....me

Believe in me

Yeah

Come on

Believe in me

Can't you see just believe in me

Come on

Believe in me

Yeah yeah

Believe in me
