

Dum Dum Girls, Cult of Love

We touch beneath our skin
Right down to the bare wires
Time to begin again
A spark that fits the fire
I belong (We belong)
I belong to the cult of love

You know all my secrets
You know all my lies
I know all your incur
I know all your alibis
I belong (We belong!)
I belong to the cult of
To the cult of
To the cult of
To the cult of love

Won't you join too?
Won't you join too?
