

Dum Dums, You Want It You Got It

If you think he's gonna leave his wife for you
You must be waiting for a miracle
If you're hoping that a change is gonna to come
You must be waiting for a miracle

If you were to be granted these things
You'd realise it was all for nothing
Unless what you want is to be hollow inside, yeah

What you want, and you need
You want it, you got it
If at first you don't succeed
You want it, you got it
Oh yeah, you got it

If you're waiting for the meaning to the puzzle inside
You must be waiting for a miracle
If you're waiting for a message from the creatures on Mars
You must be waiting for a miracle

If you were to be granted these things
You'd realise it was all for nothing
Unless what you want is to be hollow inside

What you want, and you need
You want it, you got it
If at first you don't succeed
You want it, you got it (x2)

A broken home, divorce settlement, lottery win (you got it)
The front cover of the national enquirer and hello magazine (you got it)
Smilin' holding on to the kids Dad's hand while the kid don't understand (you got it)
A dysfunctional hollywood family, a nuclear family, huh

What you want, and you need
You want it, you got it
If at first you don't succeed
You want it, you got it (x2)

And for your destiny and what will become of me, well I know it's alright... baby yeah,
I get so depressed when I think of you, but may your wildest dreams come true
I get so depressed when I think of you, make all your wildest dreams come true
But you want it, you got it, oh You got it, you got it
