

Duncan James, Turn My Head

Cut me once again
Feel my body shake
This time you said it all trying not to break yeah your words let you down
There's no need to blame
I danced the fire bright

[CHORUS]

You really turned my head
With all the crazy messed up things you said
And every time you speak you lie so well My heart lies broken at your feet

so let me confess Cos i don't need to hide
To solve this mystery
That you build on lie
Ooh lay my burden down
It makes me feel so strange Open up my heart and try and find love again

[Repeat CHORUS]
