

Duncan Sheik, On Her Mind

She's wearing the tee-shirt of a band I really like maybe that's coincidence maybe that's alright

I keep thinking about the way she said "I'll see you soon" was it more than words?

I'm just tryin' to find
what's on her mind?

I don't know when I'll see her but I'm sure that I will it's just another matter of time some more time to kill

I can imagine so many things her and I sometime in the spring
...something's happening

I'm just tryin' to find
what's on her mind?

[CHORUS:]

(I want peace but I don't make it I want love but I don't give it I want hope but I can't find it and I want her to heal me)

she's wearing the tee-shirt
of my favorite band
I should've told her that I was a fan people say I should just leave it be leave it up to destiny but that ain't for me

I'm just trying to find
what's on her mind?

[CHORUS and outros]
