Duncan Sheik, The End Of Outside

Should I say I'm sorry
For what I'm going to say
I guess it's way beyond me
To sleep with yesterday
I want to see my future
I want to know my past
The everlasting present
Is that so much to ask?

Does it make you wonder what's at the end of the outside

They say there's other vision

Deeper than the light
Maybe they 're just voices
Coming from my mind

A hundred million faces Enlightened or afraid What is going to save us From all uncertain fate

Does it make you wonder what's at the end of the outside

I want to feel closer now to the stars in the sky

Tell me, sweetly, give me The love of everyday Human nature

I don't remember how to feel that way

Anyway...

Dropped inside the ocean

Covered by the sands of the time Walk me through the seasons

Of every single life

Does it make you wonder what's at the end of the outside

I want to feel closer now to the stars in the sky...