

Dungeon Elite [], Stay Together For The Pics

Believe IN EVERYMOMENT

i think to watch your eyes

i deserve

to live in a compromise your eyes are lying in front of me they don't trust

and from the otherside i cry bring myself (heroes)

watching me down

falling to pieces

i won't forget this time so kiss me one last time trying to reach your hands i'm never falling asleep without your eyes kiss me one last time breathing togheter all night
