

Duran Duran, Time For Temptation

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you
Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do

(good, good, good, good temptation)

Why you chasing a lost religion of guilty feelings

-that belong in yesterday?

Spy the preachers a politician, he carries the cross like a gun

- whip you into shape

Heres the rub, now, no secret hours locked in the backroom if you

- come together right

Check your vision and push it out there

- you make the question, define what its all about

(chorus)

(oh) Oh...

With chains or heaven across your shoulder,

A slave for promotion to the afterlife

The boss gets fat while you just get older, here comes a mission

- set to put you right

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do - oh

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do

(No damnation...)

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do - oh

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do - oh

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

(good, good, good, good temptation)

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do

(good, good, good, good temptation)

Time for temptation, what you see is there for you

(good, good, good, good temptation)

Time for temptation, no damnation for what you do

(good, good, good, good temptation)

Time for temptation
