

Durbin, Halloows

It's in your eyes - Your fate is written
There'll come a time when all know will fade away
And twist the chain that holds you within Lightning strike - Blinding wicked
Piercing laugh - breaking glass - For the curse comes to pass
And the prophecy burns in the night

And your - end will come

The Elder - Destroyer - Undying clinging onto life
Unto the Hallows and their glory - We'll be bound

And so we listen - To the wisdom of old
From the Chamber - Revolting - And secretly waiting for us
Dark Arts - Are all you've lived in While we've fallen to Order - A Prince born to both
Will avenge for your powerful lust

Undo what - you've become

The Elder - Destroyer - Undying clinging onto life
Unto the Hallows and their glory - We'll be bound

Neither shall live - Neither survives

Lay coiling - twisting - Unmending - soul after soul
For, Love will - Always fight

The Elder - Destroyer - Undying clinging onto life
Unto the Hallows and their glory - We'll be bound
Dear, mother - Destroyer - In dying, bring me back to life
Ending the Hallows & their glory - Here and now Always.
