

Dust For Life, Shadow Pool

The night is always young
Count the visions that you see
Violent blue and shocking green
Seek the course that must be run
Strip the image from the sun
It's deeper than you've ever been

Watching Waiting
For the night to fall (For the night to fall)
Wanting Wailing
For the shadow call (For the shadow call)
Dreaming Screaming
Hiding all that's true (Hiding all that's true)
You are looking for the shadow pool

The days are always long
And the pitch is just a dream
Your eyes just seem to bleed

When the truth is hard to find
Jealousy fills your mind
It's deeper than you've ever been

Chorus (x2)
