

Dusty Springfield, Mama's Little Girl

I took the ribbon from my hair, and I'm lettin' it all hang down So if your lookin' for the same old me, gotta tell you that shes left town Dont try to call the number baby your gonna get no reply, Cause suddenly I'm changin,
Im finally rearrangin'
In this day of liberation, Im lookin to find myself Whats the use of bein patient you aint goin no where got my own two step together and i want the first slow dance with you I just saw Venus risin and I guess I'm realizin

Chorus:

I aint mamas little girl no more baby your the first to know
I aint mamas little girl no more
I took a little time to grow Its gonna be worth the waitin, the anticipatin',
I m not mamas little baby. no more Well I ve been everyone's best friend, someone they could tell their troubles to,
I found they never notice me and the pain that I was goin through Ive seen the lonely side of livin
I never want to go back there again
Sun on me is dyin
Tonight theres no denyin

Chorus:

(oooo-ooooo)

Chorus till fade
