

Dwight Yoakam, Yet To Succeed

Please don't start me cryin'
'Cause I'll go on for days
It don't take a lot
But once this starts, it stays

Talking used to help
Here lately though, that justs brings it on

I'll be fine
In time
But right now
I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to
Succeed

I think I'll just leave now
Before this hurts too much
Avoiding sights from places
My eyes can't bear to touch

I didn't plan to see you
And then I saw him first

I'll be fine
In time
But right now
I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to
Succeed

--- Instrumental ---

I'll be fine
In time
But right now
I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to Succeed...
