

Dynamite Boy, Accepted

everything we discovered all are a feel of mistakes this ride is over let us off
you have to take who's next in line we'll try it alone
we won't need you
we all should have known
we don't need you.

we could just stay and give it up and be ourselves and make it work we just won't die and let it go we'll be accepted by someone.

take in to deep perspective everything we've accomplished we won't be held back by someone who has nothing to show for
we all should have known

or be ourselves and make it work we won't just stay and let it go we'll be accepted by someone
