

Dynamite Boy, Uninvited

I can't apologize for what I haven't done
You're just a stupid kid, lookin' for some fun
I don't believe it now, and I'm not the only one
With all the lies you tell, you better start to run

[Chorus:] What's with your stupid face and your stupid mind
Look up about it, take back that line

You're not invited so what are you doing here?
No one knows you but you're drinking all the beer
We wouldn't let you in , so you came in through the rear
With all the bad luck, you're a walking broken mirror

[Chorus]
[goofy party sequence]
[First Verse]
[Chorus x2]
