

Dynasty, Against All Evil

Against the Evil I will Fight
Easy I know that won't be
I will go straight ahead
Nothing can stop my walking

In my road I will march
Until my goal to knock down
I am not alone
There is a strong hand up on me

The enemy tries to destroy my life
But God's love give me strength to fight
I believe in the name of Christ
Because He has power to save my life

Oh, I will fight, and the hell I will destroy
Oh, I will fight, in my hands I will receive
The eternal life and I will say
Oh, I've won

Oh, I need to overcome
'Cause many battles I'm gonna fight
I'll see the enemies fall
By the hands of the Lord
