

E-Type, The Original You

So damn... do you know that I can do the things you say
Whatever it might be, again
I show you what you wanna see
So come on now, I am the wrecking ball
and you control the swing
We're gonna go far, far tonight
my queen cause I am the king

So boom boom can't you see that this is how I wanna be I'm coming up hard, mean and lean I am the fighting machine You're gonna go down if you push me far enough, you will see I'm coming down hard, hard on you if you go up against me

You better believe I was born on top because I'm better than the rest of you And you'll never see me coming 'til it's too late
I'm gonna go wild like the berserk I always wanted to be
The original rude boy

Why is it that you always have to be Someone else than before, why can't you see
I just wanna hold on to what I had
The original you

Why is it that you always try to be Someone I can no longer stand to see
I just wanna hold on to what I had
The original you

So damn... do you know that
I can do the things you say
Whatever it might be, again
I show you what you wanna see
So come on now, I am the wrecking ball
and you control the swing
We're gonna go far, far tonight
my queen cause I am the king

You better believe I was born on top
And you'll never see me coming 'til

why can't you see
I just wanna hold on to what I had
The original you

Why is it that you always try to be
Someone I can no longer stand to see
I just wanna hold on to what I had
The original you...

You come with a whole lot of words but I have no ear for you
