

Eager, Decide For You

There's just one Paris
One La Rochelle
There's just one Heaven
There's just one Hell
I ain't been around the world
But I've seen enough to know what I believe
To be truth
And I have decided for me
But I can't decide it for you
Now there was just one Adam
And just one Eve
Just one garden
And one forbidden tree
You know I've made some big mistakes
But I've seen enough to know what I believe
To be truth
And I have decided for me
But I can't decide it for you
Now there's just one sun
Just one moon
There's just one me
And there's just one you
I ain't been around that long
But I've seen enough to know what I believe
To be truth
And I have decided for me
But I can't decide it for you
